

An Afternoon on Bradley Farm

A Fundraiser for the New Paltz Arts in the Schools Association

Saturday, May 11, 1pm-4pm (Open house style; drop in anytime)
Bradley Farm, 317 Springtown Road, New Paltz
Right off the Rail Trail on Cragwood Road

Activities throughout the afternoon include:

Hands-on planting activity with Farmer Ray; Kid crafts; Petting zoo and animal selfie station; Farm “tea party” with New Paltz parent Jennifer Castle, author of the books for Blaire Wilson, American Girl’s Girl of the Year 2019. Blaire lives on her family’s farm in Ulster County! Jennifer will be doing a reading, writing activity, and Q&A about creating Blaire and her stories. Kids are encouraged to bring their favorite doll or stuffy to be part of the fun. (Tea party at 2:30pm; book sales and signing before and after.)

Farm fresh lunch fare, adult beverages, farmstand produce, and Mother's Day plants will be available for purchase.

$12 for children ages 4-12. Each ticket includes entry into raffle for a Blaire Wilson doll! Free for adults and kids ages 3 and under.

Due to the parking capacity at Bradley Farm, ticket sales will be limited and advance purchase is highly recommended (as is carpooling!). Tickets can be purchased online:
